

Profile of The Week

This column attempts to acquaint Campbell residents with the background of most of its leading citizens, to make for a greater interest in the activities of the Campbell area.

Pictures from the files of the Campbell Press will be drawn, by lot, for the first of the articles. When this supply is exhausted, pictures of newer residents will be taken, to run in conjunction with stories.

PROFILE, JAMES B. ARENDS

James B. Arends Jr., city councilman, chairman of the Campbell Police Commission, Co-owner and operator of Campbell Lumber Company, Navy veteran, ardent sports enthusiast, rose gardening hobbyist, San Jose State graduate, five-year member of Campbell Kiwanis Club, lives with his wife, Evelyn, and twin daughters Gretchen and Evelyn, at 449 Maple Ave. He is 29 years old.

He is the youngest member of Campbell's first city council. As chairman of the Police Commission, he has assisted in the formation of the city's first police department, which has grown into a three-man force with its own squad car, motorcycle, and organized auxiliary policemen.

Following 10 months overseas with the U. S. Navy, Arends returned to California where he and his wife established residence in San Jose. Twin daughters, Gretchen and Evelyn were born August 6, 1946. Before the twins first birthday, the family was settled in their new home in Campbell in order to be nearer his place of business. He was, at that time, assisting his father, the late James B. Arends, Sr., in operating the Campbell Lumber Company.

Following the death of the elder Arends, Jim and his brother Emerson "Doc" Arends, continued business at Campbell Lumber Company, later purchasing property on Winchester Road, known then as Orchard City Lumber Co. Later this became known as the Winchester yard of the Campbell Lumber Company.

His four years at San Jose State College was interrupted by a three year stint in the U. S. Navy. Before his overseas assignment he was briefly stationed at Tower Hall, Naval School of Northwestern University, Chicago. While in the windy city, Arends met his wife, the former Miss Evelyn Roop, a Cincinnati, Ohio, girl, who was then employed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, in Chicago offices.

They were married December 3, 1944 and went immediately to Fort Lauderdale, Florida before he was sent to duty in the Pacific.

Arends was born on a sub-zero New Year's Day, 1924 at the Huron, South Dakota home of his parents, to join twin sisters, the present Mrs. M. W. Huff, of Oakland and Mrs. Rudy Golden of Campbell.

From South Dakota, the Arends moved to Mammoth Spring, Arkansas, before coming to California in 1936.

He proudly wears his five year perfect attendance pin for Kiwanis International for which organization he has served on the local board of directors.

Arends' gardening ability, his favorite hobby, aside from fishing and sports, is probably best evidenced by the prolific and beautiful blooms at his Maple Ave. home.

Arends says that if enthusiasm for California's climate, flora and fauna be requisites for membership as a native son, he has qualifications to spare.

CAMPBELL UNION HIGH SCHOOL ENROLLMENT INCREASING STEADILY

Enrollment at the Campbell Union High School is expected to increase 13 percent on opening day, September 14, as 1740 students are signed for classes, which number is 325 more than the enrollment of last year. About 75 more will register before January 1, 1954. There will be 82 teachers and administrators on hand which is 24 more than last term, sixteen being in newly created positions. This is according to Laurence J. Hill, superintendent.

Students new to the Campbell High School district who have not been registered through their elementary schools, were urged today to report at the high school office for pre-registration from Tuesday through Saturday next week from 9 to 12 a. m. and 1 to 4 p. m.

Students from Almaden school district will attend Campbell Union High School this year, according to Hill. Others will be enrolled from the Campbell Grammar School District, from the Moreland, Cambrian, Union and Burbank schools.

Buses will be run from the high school to the Almaden school district. Classes in two sessions will be 8 a. m. to 2:35 p. m. and 9 a. m. to 3:35 p. m.

The 8 o'clock students are to attend an assembly in the school auditorium while those in the 9 o'clock classes will take in an orientation assembly starting at 9 a. m. on the opening day. Purpose is to give program information, explain the physical set up of the school and provide other orientation data.

A series of meetings for teachers and administrators will also be held before the school opening, Hill said.

On Thursday, there is to be a general meeting for teachers and administrators, while on Friday and Saturday of next week, teaching assignments will be completed.

Superintendent Hill said today that a reception for new teachers will be held at his home, 251 Winchester Road, next Thursday evening.

Adventist School Opens This Week In Campbell

New $15,000 two room Campbell Seventh Day Adventist School on 400 West Rincon Ave., opened yesterday with an enrollment of 34, according to Adventist pastor Harold Hare.

New teachers, Mrs. Alice Busby and Nellie Ramsay greeted the newly enrolled students for a half day orientation period in the two room building. Mrs. Busby is a San Jose State graduate and Miss Ramsay, a graduate of La Sierra College, Arlington, California, has taught school for many years.

The new school building, 20 feet by 18 feet, was built entirely by volunteer labor, according to the pastor, on the one acre of land donated by church member Fred Jacques.

Chairman of the School board, Glen Swingle said children from Los Gatos, Saratoga and Campbell will be enrolled.

Mr. and Mrs. George Miskulin of Leigh avenue are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Leland Babcock of Southern California.

City Attorney Goes To Capital To Present Paper

Campbell City Attorney Joseph A. Bonacina, has been asked to prepare and present a paper for the annual conference of the National Institute of Municipal Law Officers, an association of city attorneys of the United States, according to City Clerk, Dorothy P. Trevethan.

This conference is to be held at the Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D. C., September 14, 15 and 16.

Bonacina, formerly state chairman of the organization, said it was the second time that he had been asked to participate. In 1946 he presented a paper on "Taxation of Radio Stations". This year his paper is entitled, "Annexation—Big Business" and centers about annexation activities in northern California.

The City attorney has also been invited to be a member of the discussion panel of the City Attorney's Department of the League of California Cities when they meet at San Francisco, October 18-21. This discussion, covering municipal problems will be held at a Breakfast Session at the Palace Hotel, Tuesday, October 20. The invitation was extended on behalf of the League Officers and City Attorney's Department by Richard Carpenter, Legal Counsel of the league.

CONGRESSMAN TO REVEAL THOUGHTS ON HAWAII PROJECT

Congressman Charles S. Gubser announced today that he would interview Joseph Rider Farrington, delegate to congress from Hawaii concerning possibilities of Senate action on the bill passed by the House recently which would admit Hawaii to the Union. The informal and unrehearsed program will be broadcast this Saturday over station KEEH at 6:15 p. m. and KLOK at 10:45 a. m.

HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY . . . This maxim bore fruit for Campbell youths Mike Carlino, of 150 West Rincon Ave. and Robert Rice of West Rincon Ave., Tuesday, when Campbell Attorney Martin S. Walsh, (left) presented Mrs. Rice (right) with a check for $50.00. A similar check was mailed to Mike's parents, presently in New Orleans.

Checks were given to parents of the boys for returning $774 in new currency which they found in an abandoned shack on West Rincon Ave. behind Campbell Hatchery, last March. Walsh, to whom the money was delivered, filed a claim in the boys' behalf.

Campbell Youngsters Contribute Posters To Community Chest Drive

Youngsters of all ages in the Campbell area have lent their artistic talents to the Campbell Area Community Chest Drive for 1953 by supplying hundreds of posters which will soon be posted throughout the district.

According to the Drive's public relation chairman, Ted Balgooyen, more than 500 posters depicting all phases of Community Chest activities were displayed in the schools and will be used to advertise the one night drive for Community chest funds on the night of Wednesday, September 16.

To help spur the young poster painters on, prizes were awarded to the children with the most original ideas.

In the Campbell School primary division prizes were won by Marilyn Means and Robin Page. In the intermediate division Janice Wylder and Peter Magnasco were the winners, and in the upper division, Lucille Romano and Cheryl Zumwalt and Paul Cooper, James Kendall and Audrey Roberts.

The Moorpark School prizes were awarded to David Chadsey, Serge Talbot, Jimmy Ginney, and Paul Berg.

At Quito School Beverly Johnston and Richard Long won.

In the Rosemary School, Kerry Hanson, Elizabeth Guidicatti, Robert Zumwalt and Marilyn Husted.

At the San Tomas School a class award went to pupils of Mrs. Mary Helen Morse, Robert Hanes, Barbara Gardner, Tony Ochoa and Judy Buickerood.

Mrs. Wathen, the Campbell art supervisor directed the contest.

Mr. Edward Tablak, chairman of the Campbell Area Community Chest, has announced Wednesday, September 16 as the date for the Campbell Community Chest Drive.

According to Tablak, the decision to concentrate the drive in one big evening campaign, was made at the July meeting of the Chest's Board of Directors.

The week before the big solicitation day will be spent distributing information explaining the importance of the Chest to the residents in the district which includes all the territory that makes up the Campbell Union High School District.

For the second consecutive year, Tablak has shouldered the burden of conducting the Campbell campaign. Last year he took over the chairmanship of the campaign in an emergency. Forrest Reese, who originally took the job was forced to quit because of illness.

Tablak is a well-known insurance executive in this area and has been very active in civic affairs. A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Pa., a Navy veteran, and the father of four children, he has shown a good deal of understanding of the needs of the community. He is a YMCA chairman for the Campbell area, committee man for troop 30 Boy Scouts, chairman of finance for the Santa Clara County Family Service Association, member of Kiwanis International, and last but not least a YMCA handball champion.

The goal set for the Campbell Chest this year is set at $15,200. The slogan for the campaign is "Give Where You Live." For residents who work in San Jose or elsewhere the Campbell Chest is urging that you at least split your contribution.

PARKING SIGNS BOTHER SCHOOL, NOT MERCHANTS

"To be or not to be" seems to be the question concerning the two hour parking limit parking signs North side of Campbell Ave. in front of Campbell Grammar School.

Campbell merchants indicated by Ray Fish, Calvin Bohnett, and Ray Strong at City Council meeting Monday night, that they wanted the signs to stay. Campbell Grammar School officials William C. Henley, and C. E. Bradley wanted them removed.

City council officials at meeting of August 24, in line with a protest from Campbell Union School District officials directed city attorney Joseph A. Bonacina, to prepare an amendment to the traffic ordinance to permit removal of the two hour parking limit signs. But a storm of protest from Campbell merchants during the week and at last council meeting had council members first making motions to rescind last week's direction to Bonacina to amend the ordinance, then wondering whether to amend the amendment which would leave the ordinance as written.

Mayor Richard W. Morton described it "two to two and one in the middle."

Upshot of the spirited discussion was that Bonacina was directed to defer action on preparation of an amendment to the ordinance until October 1. In the meantime, merchant representatives and school officials agreed to form committees to gather data to support their respective stands. Councilman James B. Arends Jr. agreed to meet with the committees as a city council representative.

In another parking problem senior police officer Robert J. Locke was directed to prepare recommendations and a later report back to city council concerning the parking situation on Lowell way.

R. N. Flagg, operator of Campbell Frozen Food Locker, present at meeting, requested that "no parking" signs be established on the north end of the alley. He said that when cars were parked in the alley, commercial vehicles parked for unloading completely block the north end of the alley. Herbert Gardner, owner of property at the north end said that though the 20 foot way had been dedicated for public use for the loading and unloading of trucks, it had never been accepted by the County. City attorney Bonacina ruled that Campbell Police could control parking in line with regulatory provisions for fire and other traffic control.

The James DeFriests of Camden avenue held their annual open-house cocktail party recently, with friends, business associates and relatives enjoying a pleasant evening at the DeFriest home.

CITY HIRES PUBLIC WORKS MAN; WILL HIRE FOURTH POLICE OFFICER AND CROSSING GUARD TUESDAY

City of Campbell's fourth police officer will be chosen following interviews Tuesday night at City Council meeting at Campbell Fire house, 41 Central Ave., it was decided at regular city council meeting Monday night. Senior Officer Robert J. Locke reported that he had four applicants for the position of police patrolman and, if possible,

LESTER LAFFERTY IS NEW OWNER OF CAMPBELL PRESS

Sale of the entire stock of the Campbell Publishing Company, Inc., publishers of The Campbell Press, to Lester E. Lafferty of San Carlos, was announced today by Eugene W. Barnes, Clifford T. Cassidy and Patrick H. Peabody, who owned three equal blocks of stock in the corporation. The transaction, now in escrow, became effective September 1.

Lafferty was publisher of the San Carlos Enquirer from 1935 to 1949 and of the Belmont News-Advertiser. The Enquirer grew from a 200 paid circulation to a 3100 net paid (ABC) under his management. Prior to 1935, he published papers in Tehama and Butte Counties and was a feature writer with the Sacramento Bee and United Press. He is past president of the Sacramento Valley Press Association and of the San Mateo County Press Association, both units of the California Newspaper Publishers Association.

While Lafferty is purchasing the corporate entity of the Campbell publication, Clifford T. Cassidy is to purchase a block of stock on completion of escrow and will become associate publisher in charge of the mechanical department.

In the meantime, Lafferty is today negotiating for the purchase of a home on Catalpa Lane, and will reside here starting next month.

The Campbell Press, founded in 1895, is published in the center of the rapidly developing Santa Clara Valley, flanked within a five mile radius by San Jose, Los Gatos and Saratoga. It is close to the new Ford plant at Milpitas.

In October, 1948, Eugene W. Barnes and Max Freeman purchased the Campbell Press from Patrick H. Peabody. Three months later, Freeman sold his interest to Cassidy. The paper moved to its present location on Dillon street in 1950. In September of that year, Barnes and Cassidy sold a one-third interest to Peabody, which ownership has continued to date.

Barnes, who is a home owner in the Campbell area, expects to remain here, but said today his future plans are indefinite.

CITY TO INSTALL PLASTIC MARKERS AT CROSSWALKS

Instead of painting all school crosswalks at an approximate cost of $495, Campbell city council Monday night agreed to install plastic Durolene markers, which according to Mayor Richard W. Morton will effect a $1,000 annual saving after the first year.

Campbell has 60 crosswalks totalling 4800 feet of six inch wide painted line, the mayor pointed out. Annual painting including labor of maintenance men, paint cost, and depreciation of equipment would cost the city $495.00 he said.

It was agreed to install the markers and pay for them over a period of time in the amount that would ordinarily be spent for a painting job.

Campbell Police Seek Information

Campbell police received a letter this week from Mrs. Isabelle Cornthwaite of 760 Third Ave., Woonsocket, Rhode Island, requesting information as to the whereabouts of her sister, Margaret Ann Cornthwaite, whose last known address, according to the letter was at Los Gatos, at Rt. No. 3, Box 112.

Local police request that anyone having information concerning Miss Cornthwaite contact either the person concerned or the Campbell Police department whose telephone number is FRanklin 8-3659.

Judge Blaine; 15-mo.-old Child, Hurt In Accidents

Judge John D. Blaine, 80, of 25 South Second Street, former Campbell Justice of the Peace, was treated for lacerations, and shock, by a local physician following an accident last Friday.

Blaine was pitched to the pavement at intersection of North Central Ave. and Hamilton Ave., when his two-wheel racing bike was brushed by a truck driven by Archie Lionel Hocking of 1116 Lennon Way, San Jose, according to local police.

In another accident, 15 month old Alfred Armstrong of cabin six, Gillman Ave. was treated for abrasion at County Hospital emergency when struck by an automobile backing out of a driveway. Campbell Police said driver Harold Ray Reid of Cabin eight, 55 Gillman Ave. was not held.

Annexing Topic Of C.P.I.A. Meet

Another in a series of talks on annexation was given at the September first meeting of the Cambrian Improvement Association at Union School, with Harold Seyforth, Associate Planner of the City of San Jose, speaker of the evening.

Subject of Seyforth's speech was Advantage of Annexation to San Jose in Regard to Police and Fire Protection.

The remainder of the General meeting was devoted to Rulon Bigelow's report on the coming "Cambrian." More volunteers are needed for the "Gay Nineties Festival" and those interested are urged to contact Mr. Bigelow at FR 8-0256.

The Cambrian will be held at Parker school on September 12th with entertainment from 4 to 12 p. m. The music for the evening dance will be supplied by the cooperation of Local 153, American Federation of Musicians, through a grant from the Trust Fund for Musical Performance of the recording industry.

The Board of Directors of the C. P. I. A. is contemplating incorporation of the Association as a concern to protect individual members in case of suit of injury or each member of the association is damage. Without incorporation, liable individually while under incorporation, the treasury of the association alone is liable.

Calendula Makes Colorful Garden For Winter

CALENDULA

Calendula, stock, snapdragon, pansy, viola and primula malacoides are now appearing at retail nurseries. All thrive on the short cool days ahead and furnish months of stimulating color when the entire garden is at its lowest ebb.

Of this group calendula or "Pot Marigold" needs re-introduction into many gardens as there are new varieties that are markedly superior to strains available just a few short years ago. Present day calendula produce giant semi-double daisy flowered blooms in the old familiar orange and yellow as well as many new shades such as apricot, salmon and cream. Each flower head is born on a strong stem of excellent cutting length; thus giving calendula a dual role of garden beauty and indoor decoration.

Plant calendulas one foot apart in loose soil into which has been worked a goodly supply of steer manure. Avoid watering in the evening but do give occasional daytime thorough soakings. Calendula requires plenty of water but tends to rot when they suffer from steady wet feet—so raised beds are wise in anticipation of winter rains.

American Business Behind The Scenes

by Reynolds Knight

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Most comment on the Senate's refusal to allow a rise in the limit on the national debt has stressed the political aspects of the action. May be there was considerable politics in the decision, but that does not alter the fact that its economic impact will be considerable, too.

Today the Treasury has some $6 billion in banks, large and small, throughout the nation. Those deposits allow those banks, conservatively, to make loans totaling $18 billion. Now the bankers know that perhaps two-thirds of the government deposits will be withdrawn, some of them just when business is moving into its Labor Day to Christmas upswing. Money will be tighter.

There will also be a lessening of government spending. It is always possible to cut back spending when such vast sums are handled. The Treasury will want some cash in reserve in case the Senate feels the same way when Congress reconvenes in January.

LIGHTENING THE LOAD—The salesman's burden, as advertising has developed over the last generation, has been mounting as sales aids have joined his samples. Manufacturers' advertising campaigns, dealer sales displays, and new products all contribute their bulky and heavy pictures and cut-outs to be toted from store to store.

Sheaffer Pen Company has now come up with an invention which relieves the salesman of the physical weight while still giving him the valuable support these gadgets lend his own persuasiveness. Each Sheaffer salesman now sets forth with a portable slide viewer, carried in a neat shoulder case, and a set of slides.

He sets up the viewer and shows the dealer what the maker is doing in advertising, what the dealer can get to pep up his own counters and windows, what's new in the Sheaffer line, what other retailers have been doing with sales aid material. When the dealer decides he wants this or that, it is mailed to him. The salesman can put all his energy into selling rather than lifting.

THINGS TO COME—A prefabricated boat maker will sell you the makings of a house trailer for $549. Put it together yourself. . . . Amateur movie makers will soon be able to buy a 3-D 16 millimeter camera. . . . Laminated baseball bats, now available for amateur use await big league sanction. . . . A Kansas firm makes a swamp buggy (flat-bottomed boat driven by an air propeller for use in shallow water) that will travel over grass if it's dewy. . . . New transparent change boxes are graduated like measuring cups, so you can add up your change at sight.

BOUNDLESS SUPPLY—The nation's natural gas industry now distributes more gas in a single year than it did in all the first hundred years this form of fuel was in use. That's only the beginning, say industry leaders.

It seems the more gas you use, the more you have. Use of the natural fuel in 1953 attained a peak of more than eight trillion cubic feet. Additions to reserves of nearly six trillion also set a record. The seemingly limitless reserve supply is the basic factor in the multi-billion-dollar expansion program which will soon provide natural gas service to 165 cities, each of more than 50,000 population.

A detailed picture of the projects, companies and communities involved is presented in the 1953 edition of "Natural Gas Construction Data", a 50 page brochure published by the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association.

CENSUS SEARCHING—The census of manufacturers see for this year is quite dead, to the chagrin of merchandisers and statisticians who thought to the last that Congress couldn't do that to them.

A phenomenon of postwar years has been the rapid growth of consulting agencies who applied the methods of statistical economics to all kinds of business tasks—sales forecasting, demand studies, plant used to undertake with no outside aids.

TV Being Used In Study To Improve Fishing Techniques

MIAMI, Fla. (U.P.)—A unique television project here may help revolutionize the fishing industry.

You'll never see the show, for it will originate on the ocean floor and won't be transmitted any farther than the ship above from which it will be directed.

It's part of an attempt by the University of Miami Marine Laboratory to find new ways to harvest the crop of the sea.

According to university scientists, the ocean-to-ship television, when perfected, will enable commercial fishermen to spot schools of fish in the water and save them the trouble and expense of the present hit or miss method of finding fish.

The laboratory is also using TV to test the efficiency of nets and other fishing equipment.

They're also using sound. Operating on the principle of sonar, or sound echoes, they hope to be able to pinpoint fish movements by sending out sound waves under the water.

So far underwater use of sound is pretty uncertain.

During the war, Navy anti-submarine crews had considerable difficulty with sonic equipment because they frequently would get false indications. The result was they would often depth charge whales by mistake or lose track of a U-boat because of an interruption by a school of fish.

According to the scientists, each type of fish has its own special sound. For example a school of shrimp makes a noise similar to gravel hitting a car fender.

Thus, by knowing these sounds, fishermen can easily detect a certain type of fish they want to cast for.

And to round out the program the university scientists are working on electrical impulses which will attract some fish and frighten off others.

For instance, a certain electrical impulse will lure shrimp of a desired size from the craggy ocean floor where nets would be torn, and bring them to a level where the nets could be used. At the same time the impulses would frighten away undesirable fish which the fishermen must sort from his net at a cost of time and money.

The University of Miami experimenters hasten to point out the projects are still far from the stage of practical use for commercial fishermen. They say there are many problems still to be worked out.

But when they're solved, the fish had better look out. Not only will they be pinpointed by television and sonar but they'll also be lured right into the fishermen's nets.

The belief has been growing in Washington that the Census Bureau has been running too many errands for too many private business groups. Now Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks has ordered a general examination to find how far afield the Bureau may have gone. Too late for the business census, naturally.

BITS O' BUSINESS—New York department store sales slipped back when subway fares rose. . . . There were no loans made by the RFC in the week ended July 24. . . . Private estimates are that the cotton crop will be off 10 per cent from last year's. . . . Britons now swallow 10 million aspirins a day, double pre-war use. . . . Cash dividends on stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange set an all-time record in first-half of 1953.

LAW IN ACTION

SUFFICIENT CONSIDERATION IN CONTRACTS

A contract needs to provide for a "sufficient consideration." Each party must receive something. Suppose you promise to deliver your car to me in return for $700. The "consideration" I receive is your car, and your "consideration" is my $700.

Suppose I plan to add a room on my house which cuts off your view. You say: "Don't build that room and I'll give you my car." If I do not build it, my forbearance makes your promise binding. Out of this transaction, we both get something we want—a consideration.

The consideration may be an object, a promise, or an act. The law says only that such considerations must have value in the eyes of both parties.

Informal Contracts
Many think that contracts are set up amidst coils of red tape. But most contracts are informal. Mere hand signals in the Chicago Pit show the consent of the parties to the prices and amounts of grain bought and sold. A housewife doing her shopping enters into many informal contracts every week without knowing it.

Formal Contracts
Some contracts must be in writing and signed by all parties, before the law will enforce them.

What kind of contracts must be put into writing? Any kind which will not be performed within a year, such as an agreement to rent a house for 18 months; a promise to stand good for another's debts; a marriage contract which involves property; a sale of goods worth more than $500; a sale of real property.

There are some exceptions such as where I make part payment on goods over $500, or deliver to the other party a part of the goods, or let another build a house on my property. But even where there is partial performance, it always helps to avoid confusion and expense to have a clearly written contract.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.

Coffee-Raisin Pilau Is a Delicious Dessert

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

DID you ever have pilau? It is a concoction of rice, spice and a varying number of other ingredients that range from meat and fish to fruits and nuts. Try the following dessert pilau. Your family will love it.

COFFEE-RAISIN PILAU

One package pre-cooked rice, regular strength coffee, ½ cup golden raisins, ½ cup chopped walnuts, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon nutmeg, ½ cup brown sugar firmly packed, 1 cup heavy cream, whipped.

Prepare pre-cooked rice according to package directions, using coffee instead of water. Stir in remaining ingredients except cream. Mix well. Cool. Fold in whipped cream, reserving enough for garnishing. Spoon into sherbet glasses. Top with remaining whipped cream and chopped walnut meats.

Everybody likes upside-down gingerbread. Try it with pineapple or pears.

PINEAPPLE-UPSIDE-DOWN GINGERBREAD

dry ingredients alternately with sour milk (about ½ of each at a time). Beat ½ minute.

Pour batter in the above pan over pineapple and cherries and spread to sides and corners. Bake one hour or until done. Cool 15 minutes before removing from pan.

Note: Pear-Upside-Down Gingerbread: Replace pineapple with pears in the above recipe.

Summer Time Was Busy Time For School Crews

School for Campbell Union Elementary School district will begin Monday, September 14th, with a beginning enrollment in excess of 4000 students, district superintendent William C. Henley said Monday. An increase to 4200 or 4300 through the year is anticipated by school officials.

Henley said that some 37 people have been at work all summer, aside from their two-week vacation periods. The administrative staff and secretaries have been busy with year end reports and then in preparing material to start the present school year, trying to make progress in the construction of school and additional facilities for the additional pupils, purchase of furniture, making of cabinets and other work connected with the school, he said.

Maintenance personnel under the direction of Dave Sanders, Superintendent of buildings and Grounds and Equipment, have been busy all summer long, cleaning, renovating, making alterations and painting, landscaping and constructed many cabinets, assembled hundreds of pieces of furniture, refinished other hundreds of pieces, and in general have been lifting the faces of six schools that were in operation last year and the preparation of seventh new school—Hamilton—for its opening September 14th. Without the summer work of its very busy operation and maintenance crew, the district's school buildings and equipment would seem deteriorate, he said.

School offices were opened Monday, August 31st by the principal of the school and the secretary in order to enroll new pupils and to get everything in readiness for the actual operation of the school itself in order that the pupils may be received on opening day, Henley said.

THE DOOR KEY

That important door key will not be evasive any more when the housewife returns from the grocery, if she will sew a large-sized dress hook inside her handbag, near the top, on which to hang the key.

LOCAL SCHOOL DISTRICT SETS PRE-SCHOOL MEET

A series of meetings for teachers and administrators of Campbell Union School District will be held before school opening, William C. Henley said this week.

The superintendent said the first of these meetings was held September 1st at 10 a. m. in the Administrative Office for principals, to arrange final details of school opening.

Tomorrow, Henley said, there will be a general meeting for all teachers in the Campbell Union School District at 9 a. m. in the Campbell Grammar School Cafeteria at which time Henley will greet teachers and orient them for the new school year. Introductions of new personnel will be made and general directions will be given, he said. The balance of the day will be spent at the school of the particular teacher's assignment.

Prior to the Friday meeting, Henley said there will be meetings held for new teachers in the district. On September 8 at 9 a. m.

Col. Anderson Ends Army Reserve Sch.

Lieutenant Colonel Marshall A. Anderson, 12630 Paseo Olivos, Saratoga, completed summer training at the 6227th U. S. Army Reserve School at the Presidio of San Francisco Saturday, August 22nd.

He studied the latest types of ordnance equipment and received training in the field, including a trip to Benicia Arsenal to observe repair and maintenance of heavy equipment, such as tanks, howitzers, etc.

there will be a meeting for new teachers of kindergarten and grade one; at 1 p. m. for new teachers of grades two and three.

On September 10th at 9 a. m. for new teachers of grades four and five; at 1 p. m. for new teachers of six, seven and eight. At 2 p. m. on that day there will be a tour of the County Library and County Audio-Visual Department for all new teachers. All of these meetings will be at the Administration Building, 111 North Third Street, Campbell, according to the district superintendent.

San Jose School Head Warns Of Cut In The New Budget

Earle Crandall, superintendent of schools in San Jose, yesterday warned principals, counselors and other staff members that since assessed valuations in the school district had fallen some six million dollars short of the estimated figure, that a sharp cut in the estimated 1953-54 budget might be expected.

Officials had estimated the valuation at 158-million dollars last spring, an increase of $11,000,000 over last year as computed on a five-year average. There is a loss of some $150,000 in anticipated revenue for the schools, which loss will have to be made up by careful spending, Crandall said.

Tea will be served from 1:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m. amidst the awe of fall color and decor with a musical background. This event is open to the public, and will be held November 4th, Campbell Country Women's Club.

The wandering Downing boys, Arthur Jr. 17, and Davey 14, have returned to the Downing Ranch following their eastern trip.

The boys, accompanied by great aunt Flora Downing, en-trained to Detroit and after delivery of their car, and a tour of the Packard traveled east to Washington, D. C., where they enjoyed "tourist tours" of the numerous points of interest in the Capital City.

Eighteen states were visited on their four weeks journey and an enjoyable time was had by all.

THE RAINBOWS THAT COME IN CANS

Remember the last time you took a can of paint and stirred it up with a little imagination and some brushwork?

We'll bet it gave you a different slant on life, whether it brightened a part of your house or gave a child's toy a colorful look.

To help make your life brighter—and easier—today's paints come in every tint and hue of the rainbow. Best of all, the modern miracle paints come to you ready to use.

America's paint industry and the American Can Company virtually grew up together.

The paint companies worked out formulas for ready-mixed paints that do just about any special job you have in mind. Meanwhile, Canco developed practical, leak-proof containers, with their now familiar "double-clinch" covers, to keep paint fresh during shipping and storage, until you are ready to use it.

New plants and whole new industries were able to get started when Canco developed the right container for ready-mixed paints. This meant new and better jobs, and a higher level of prosperity for us all.

Yes, by making better cans—not only for paints but for just about everything you can think of—Canco has been able to help all Americans eat better, live better and work better.

We can be proud of such teamwork between our people and our business enterprises. That's what makes America such a satisfying country to live and work in. And it promises a future—"bright as paint"—for us all.

Political parties, as such, mean less to us today than they did a generation ago.

There is a good reason for this. Our parties have been mongrelized. To label a man by the generic term "Republican" or "Democrat" means little, now, for the division within the parties themselves has grown so wide as to make their names anything but descriptive.

In their place has grown a state of mind. Today a person considers himself, politically, either a liberal or a conservative.

What each believes, rather than his party affiliation, is the best measure of his political thinking.

And while it is also true there are degrees of division within the conservative and liberal groups, the fact is their basic beliefs may be defined.

THE DIFFERENCE
Those of a conservative bent believe personal and constitutional liberty paramount.

The liberals would swap these for "planned economy" and "security".

The liberal believes the average citizen unfit for self-government (else why a "planned economy") and fit only to be controlled by such sages as the "unfit" elect to office.

The Conservative, on the other hand, considers the average citizen able to manage his own affairs better than either the President, the Congress, the planners, or even the labor bosses.

named office is hereby specified by the undersigned as the place of business in all matters connected with said estate.

San Jose, Calif., this 5th day of August, A. D. 1953.

THOMAS F. KILMARTIN
Public Administrator of Santa Clara County, California
Administrator
Aug. 13, 20, 27, Sept. 3.

Which does not mean the conservative is an anarchist. Certainly he believes he should bow to the will of the majority—that is his duty as a citizen—but only under strict constitutional limitation.

GOVERNMENT DEFINED

So long, the conservative believes, as the majority acts within the limits of the law, so long should the minority submit. But such is not necessarily the case when government (in the hands of either a dictator or popular majority) passes wholly beyond its legitimate sphere.

That sphere is clearly defined. Jefferson said the function of government is "to restrain men from injuring one another", while leaving him "otherwise free". That is the conservative belief.

Liberals, as their 20-year record shows, believe government a good thing in itself and do not think there can possibly be too much of so good a thing—so long as they do the governing.

To a conservative, government is merely a disagreeable though necessary means to the great end of preserving the liberty of the weak against the despotism of the strong.

FORCE vs. FREEDOM

Today, millions of liberals think it right, by a mere count of noses, to force men to join unions in order to work at the job of their choice; to prevent them from dicker with their butcher over the price of meat or with their landlord over the rent they shall pay.

Under their 20-year rule and as our ills grow progressively worse, the liberals prescribed greater doses of their one remedy: government, more government, and more government.

Conservatives, in respite at last, hope devoutly President Eisenhower and the new Congress will follow the road of liberty, more liberty, and more liberty still.

Dance Studio Open In Quito Sept. 19

September 19th will mark the opening of Madelyn's Studio of Dance in the Quito Shopping Center. The new dance studio will be located in the rear of Doctor Higgin's Office, with the entrance opening onto the parking area in the rear of the Shopping Center.

Madelyn Brown, instructor and operator of the studio herself commenced dancing at an early age. As she explains it, "I was practically raised in a dance studio because my mother was a professional dancer and dance instructor."

Mrs. Brown started teaching in 1946 with the Hesters Studios in Georgia. During the summer months she continued her studies while teaching ballet in Daytona Beach, Florida to help defray the cost of private lessons.

She opened her own studio in the East in 1948 and taught Ballet, Tap and Ballroom dancing until coming to California. Mrs. Brown keeps pace with the latest steps through her affiliation with the National Association of Dance & Affiliated Artists. She attends the San Francisco chapter sessions once a month and studies under well-known artists in the professional dance world.

Her first west coast recital was held in Campbell last year. Mrs. Brown explained that she firmly believes in recitals and placing her young pupils before the public as soon as they are ready. Her greatest aim in teaching dancing is to help build strong, healthy bodies for growing children. She expressed a strong belief that dancing develops grace and poise and aids greatly in giving the child self assurance he or she needs to greet people and to take the proper place in adulthood.

The best product in the world won't sell unless the people hear about its advantages and the best way to advertise is in the Campbell Press.

Villa Montalvo Activities

by Theodore Rosenfeld

Mesdames Nancy Payette, cellist of Los Gatos, and Norma Reddert, pianists, demonstrated before an overflow audience at Villa Montalvo last Sunday, the kind of musical that pleases music lovers and which promises much for the future in cello-piano concert music.

Inspired by the presence of their teachers, Gabor Rejto, cellist, and Adolph Baller, respectively, Nancy Payette and Norma Reddert conscientiously strove to emulate "the master and the scholar" idea, effectively in a very difficult and exciting program. Their humble approach is a source of charm and both artists deserved the enthusiastic reception they got from the listeners.

Miss Payette showed excellent technical and musical grasp of the difficult cello works she performed on her unusually deep toned instrument, while Miss Reddert effectively and consistently supported her by blending the piano counterparts with fine sense of musical balance.

Outstanding work presented was "Sonata" by Zoltan Kodaly. It is an exciting cello work and was well received.

The program in full was: "Sonata in E Minor, Opus 58," Brahms; seven variations on Mozart, "Maggie Flute," theme by Beethoven, "Sonata" by Zoltan Kodaly and "Sonata in F, Opus 5 No 1," by Beethoven.

ATKINS ART WORK

Wholesome, modest and charming are three words that describe the workmanship of Miss Ellen Atkins, of Danville, California, in her Art Exhibit now on display at Villa Montalvo between 10 a. m.

Home Ext. Meets In Quito Center

The Monte Linda group of Home Extension met last Monday in the Baptist Chapel in Quito Park. This group will meet the first Tuesday of every month, with Mrs. Josephine Scarpace being the chairman.

The subject of the last meeting was: "Make your house a home; new ideas to make your home livable". Sponsored by the University of California, these groups meet throughout the area and serve a very valuable purpose of bringing new ideas to the home maker.

Missouri Society Meets Saturday At Costa Hall

The Missouri Society will meet Saturday, Sept. 5, for regular meeting at Costa Hall, 15 South Third Street at 7:30 p. m.

After the business meeting, there will be dancing until lunch at 10 p. m., after which dancing will be continued until 12 o'clock. All members and friends are cordially invited to attend according to May Reiter, chairman.

and 5 p. m. daily until the end of September.

One must see the articles to appreciate them. They consist of hand silk-screened prints, stoneware and glass of unusually subtle and sensitive design and color, all of which were either wheel-thrown or handbuilt in Miss Atkins' Danville workshop.

You do not have to be an art analyst to appreciate Miss Atkins' exhibit since they are all practical ornamentations such as would enliven an average esthetic taste in the home.

It is worth your time seeing this exhibit at Villa Montalvo.

HOUSEHOLD SCRAPBOOK

By Roberta Lee Mucilage Substitute

Quite often when one is in a hurry to mail a letter, there will be but one stamp and it has no mucilage on its back. In this predicament all that's necessary is to moisten the mucilage flap on another envelope, run the stamp over the dampened part quickly, then place on the letter to be mailed.

The Hanging-Basket

A novel way to water the hanging-basket, without spilling water on the floor, is to insert a small funnel in the basket, as near the center of the basket as possible, and hidden by the foliage. Fill this funnel with water every day, and it will soak into the soil gradually.

Mending A Cracked Range

A crack on the inside of a range can be mended by using a filler made of equal parts of common table salt and wood ashes, moistened with water to the proper consistency. The filler will dry hard and be lasting.

Testing Coffee

A way to test the quality of coffee is to put a spoonful into a glass of cold water and add a few drops of lemon juice. If the coffee is pure it will remain on top of the water; if not, the water will become brown in color.

The Patch Bag

A most practical patch bag can be made from a yard or two of mosquito netting. This enables one to see the contents from the outside, and there is no necessity for emptying the entire contents to find the exact piece of goods wanted.

New Traffic Laws Effective Sept. 9

SACRAMENTO—"On and after September 9 it will be illegal for any vehicle using bright headlights beams to follow within 200 feet of the car ahead." B. R. Caldwell, California Highway Patrol Commissioner, stated today.

"Immediate cooperation by all drivers will end one of the most serious hazards of night driving as well as an irritating source of discomfort."

"It is ironic that the legislature has found it necessary to make illegal a practice which normal courtesy should have eliminated long ago," Caldwell added.

"There has been no change in the existing requirement that all motorists must lower the beams of their headlights when approaching within 500 feet of a vehicle bound from the opposite direction," he explained.

The new amendment will apply to any motor vehicle operated on the highways between thirty minutes after sundown and thirty minutes before sunrise; or at any other time when headlights would normally be required.

The light dimming regulation is one of more than 130 changes in the 1953 legislature and scheduled to take effect on September 9.

Pouring From Cans

The secret of pouring liquid from a can is to make two holes in the can instead of one, about an inch apart. The one hole is for the liquid to pour from, the other hole to let the air into the can.

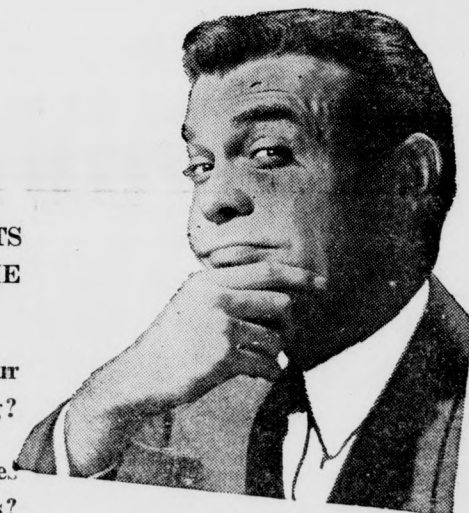

Soiled playing cards can be cleaned by dipping a small sponge in spirits of camphor and rubbing the card gently. This will restore the newness.

Campbell High School head football coach Jim Muir, said yesterday that practice sessions will start on the opening day of school, September 14, less than two weeks from today.

Dr. Robert M. Wade, team physician will give physical examinations on the afternoon of Tuesday, September 8th from 1 p. m. to 3 o'clock, at which time equipment will be issued for those turning out, Muir said. Football applicants should also bring $5 for C. I. F. insurance.

Muir said that if for any reason, prospective griders can not be at the school next Tuesday, they should contact one of the coaches. Coaches this year according to High School Superintendent L. J. Hill, will be Junior Morgan, Mel Stein, Howard Brown and Harold Duddridge assisting head coach Jim Muir.

Muir said grid candidates should be working out each day with the idea of reporting for practice in good physical shape. He especially emphasized much running—working on starts and sprinting short distances.

Muir also advised candidates planning to use a new pair of shoes this season to break them in gradually to prevent blisters.

Muir said there would be 11 lettermen returning this year among which are four first string members of last year's SCVAL championship squad; Bill Gregg at fullback, Larry Sutton at quarterback, Rob Webb at center and Russ Camilleri at end.

Other returning lettermen include: Tony Schraub (e), Gary Lukehart (t), Rich Calloway (t), Ted Bohn (g), Bill Montero (lh), Dick Carter (rh), and Don Davis (f).

Muir said that 150 suits would be issued for use of the schools three squads. Although lightweight squad will start practice on the first day of school, Muir said suits would not be issued until one week after start of practice sessions.

Muir listed this year's grid schedule as follows: Dates are still tentative:

October 2 Castlemont High School, Oakland and on successive Fridays at home, Mountain View, Fremont (league), Balboa, S. F. reserves, James Lick at Lick, Santa Clara at Campbell, a night game with Washington at Center-ville, and the traditional little big game with Los Gatos Thanksgiving morning at 11 a. m.

Saratoga Girl, 6 Shot Accidentally By Boy Playmate

A six-year-old Saratoga girl, Sharon Hurlley, is in critical condition this morning from gunshot wounds sustained Tuesday afternoon from the accidental discharge of an ancient rifle by a six-year-old playmate, James Boisseranc, son of Mrs. Carolyn Boisseranc of 13920 Pierce Road.

Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver W. Hurlley, also of Pierce Road. The bullet passed through the lower part of her body, according to sheriff's officers. The boy allegedly had taken an 1894 Winchester rifle from his hiding place in the garage, toying with the gun and placing a bullet in the chamber and playfully aiming at the girl some fifteen yards from the garage.

"The gun went off and Sharon started to cry," he told officers.

The boy's father heard the shot and the girl's scream. Bleeding profusely, the girl was rushed to a physician's office then to the hospital.

Campbell Clubs Sell SJS Tickets For Charity

Starting last Tuesday August 25, and running for the next week, Campbell Odd Fellows, and Campbell Ada Rebekahs are conducting the sale of season football tickets for San Jose State games.

Proceeds from the sale of these tickets, according to club spokesmen, will be used to establish centers for convalescing rheumatic fever patients throughout the United States.

In Santa Clara County the organizations are launching the first major fund project in California. The campaign will continue for two weeks, spokesmen said, and from every season ticket sold, whether at the box office or by individual solicitation, Odd Fellows-Rebekah Benevolences will receive 80 cents.

A minimum goal of 4,000 tickets has been set, which will mean, if attained $32,000 toward a rheumatic fever convalescent center in California.

San Jose State Home football games will be played September 18 with University of Idaho, October 10 with Arizona State of Tempe; October 31, North Texas State College, and November 7 with College of Pacific, the Spartan's traditional foe.

ATTEMPT AT BANK, VARIETY STORE UNDER SURVEY

Campbell Police, Federal investigators, and cameramen created a flurry of excitement last Friday morning, on Campbell Ave. when it was discovered Campbell Branch of American Trust Company and Campbell Variety Store had been broken into and feared robbed.

Further investigation revealed the skylight and ceiling above the main floor of the bank had been cut through but as far as could be determined, according to local police, nothing had been taken.

A similar entry was made next door at Campbell Variety Store and police said they found the back door open, indicating entry had been made. Nothing had been taken they said, as far as could be determined from immediate investigation.

Senior Officer Robert J. Locke, who made the initial investigation with officer Louis Doolittle, said the thief or thieves dropped into the Variety Store through the broken skylight and walked out the door.

FBI agents and local police are conducting an investigation.
